

Home Health Gold

Proven. Comprehensive. Accurate. Fast. Friendly. Practical.
Data analysis tools and report writing software

Clinical Inconsistencies Report

Patient=NUNEZ, DORIS (300613)

Team= MABEL

Primary Provider=DOUCET, ANNE

ROC assessed on 08/25/2005

Assessed by WALSH, MARIE

Locked on Sunday,
08/28/2005

Warning - Clinical Inconsistency Flag  MO200 - Medical Treatment Change Within Past 14 Days: 00 - "No" MAY be Inconsistent with:

M0510 - Has this patient been treated for a Urinary Tract infection in the past 14 days?: 01 - Yes.

Warning - Clinical Inconsistency Flag  MO390 - Vision: 01 - "Partial Impaired" MAY be inconsistent with:

M0780 - Management of Oral Medications: 00 - Able to independently take the correct oral medication(s) and proper dosage(s) at the correct time.

Current Payment Sources for Home Care (M0150) PPS Warning Edit  Payor change! Due to payor selection this assessment will be submitted; previous one for this episode was NOT submitted.

Review payor for this and previous assessment. Change if appropriate:

"Our staff finds the Clinical Inconsistencies report invaluable. Now our team coordinators hand out the report and hear, 'Oh man, I didn't mean to answer that!' It's an easy way for management to approach staff, and it's a great educational tool."

Mary Ann Mohesky
Home Health, Manager
North Kansas City Hospital
North Kansas City, MO

Imagine:

Catching errors that affect both reimbursement and Outcomes, and yet are not detected by CMS validation checks.

Immediately locating, reviewing and fixing potential errors before submission, and before they are recorded online at Home Health Compare.

Identifying common errors and misinterpretations to focus discussion upon at your next training session.

(207) 872-4544 or www.homehealthgold.com